Do coaches have to take the new course now?

- It depends on the expiration date of their current Safety Training for Swim Coaches certificate. Their certificate is valid until the expiration date indicated.
- Coaches need to take the new course prior to the expiration of your current certification.
- Have them check their 2013 USA Swimming membership card or Deck Pass account to check the expiration date of their current certificate.

If a coach has a current Lifeguarding certificate, what should he or she do?

- Register for and complete the Safety Training for Swim Coaches Online Content Only course, which is available on redcross.org/takeaclass.
- Present the following course completion certificates to the LSC Registrar:
 - Lifeguarding (see the USA Swimming List of Approved Safety Courses for eligible certificates)
 - Safety Training for Swim Coaches Online Content Only

When combined with a current STSC Online Content Only certificate, the validity period of the Lifeguarding certificate will be recognized by USA Swimming as meeting the Coaches Safety Education Requirement.

Where is the written exam that used to be on the USA Swimming website?

- The option to just take the written exam is no longer available.
- Coaches must now complete the Safety Training for Swim Coaches Blended Learning course, which includes an online component and an in-water skills session.

How do coaches find the online content only course?

The screenshot shows the 'Take a Class' page on the American Red Cross website. The page is divided into three main steps: 1. Select Your Location, 2. Select a Class Category, and 3. Search for Classes. In the 'Select a Class Category' step, a dropdown menu is open, showing a list of course categories. The 'Water Safety Education' category is highlighted in blue. Below the dropdown, there are three featured course cards: 'First Aid/CPR Certification', 'Lifeguarding', and 'Babysitter's Training'. The 'Water Safety Education' category is the only one that is an online content only course.

So, can a coach take the STSC Online Content Only and then take a Lifeguarding course?

- Yes. The validity period will be the “overlap” between the two certificates.
 - Once one of the certificates expire, the coach no longer meet the coaches safety education requirement.

If a coach does not have a Lifeguarding certificate, what should he or she do?

- Register for and complete a Safety Training for Swim Coaches course that is scheduled through a Red Cross participating aquatics facility.
 - Once registered, the instructor will send the coach a registration deep link to complete the online course content.
 - The coach must also complete the in-water skills session scheduled as part of the course.
- If a coach has a current Safety Training for Swim Coaches certificate, he or she is eligible for the review course.

Upon successful completion of a full or review course, you will receive a Safety Training for Swim Coaches/First Aid certificate.

Can I accept the Progress Report as evidence of completing the full or review STSC course?

- No. The only acceptable documentation of completion of the full or review STSC are one of the following certificates:
 - Safety Training for Swim Coaches/First Aid
 - Safety Training for Swim Coaches/First Aid/Adult and Child CPR/AED

Can the coach take the STSC Online Content Only course now then find an in-water skills session later?

- No. If the coach does not have an eligible Lifeguarding certificate (as indicated on the USA Swimming List of Approved Safety Courses), he or she must enroll in a Safety Training for Swim Coaches full or review course, which are blended learning offerings.

How can a coach find a new Safety Training for Swim Coaches course?

- The new course is a blended learning offering—online content combined with an in-water skills session—that must be set up in advance in the Red Cross Learning Center.
- To find a course, check with a Red Cross participating aquatics facility for a schedule of courses.
- Your instructor will provide you a registration deep link to the online content and a schedule for the in-water skills session.
- If you cannot find a course, contact a Safety Training for Swim Coaches, Lifeguarding or Water Safety instructor at a Red Cross participating facility to get a course scheduled.
